

Living Your Strengths:

Discover Your God-Given Talents and Inspire Your Community

A Day of Renewal and Reflection for Women

Who should attend?

- Catholic women of all ages are invited and nursing babies are always welcome.

What will I get out of the day?

- Prior to the event you will receive your hardcover book “Living Your Strengths” with an online code (back of the book). Complete the Clifton StrengthsFinder Assessment.
- Discover your God-given gifts, talents, and strengths through the online Assessment. Come to the seminar with your top Five Strengths and then learn what they mean.
- Be inspired to use your strengths to build your family, friends, parish and apostolate.
- Receive the graces of attending Mass, optional Confession, and being with Catholic women who are seeking to transform the culture with faith and action.
- Enjoy learning and growing in a fun and lively atmosphere.

What does a table captain do?

- Registers herself and five other table guests at www.missionnetworkmsp.org. Payment with one credit card required, using Paypal link online.
- Picks up the books and distributes them prior to the event.
- Plan a follow-up party/coffee event with your table friends to encourage fully living of God-given strengths.
- Registration closes April 2nd. Event will fill-up so register early!
